I'm personally asking you to endorse my campaign for president today.

Add your name to show your support.

ADD YOUR NAME

Yang Gang --

I am currently campaigning around the country -- New Hampshire this week, a big rally in Nevada this weekend and the DNC debate in Atlanta next week.

These last few weeks have been an exciting for us. We aired our first three TV ads in Iowa and New Hampshire, called winners of the Freedom Dividend, and continued to shock the establishment.

I am proud to be running a campaign that focuses on putting Humanity First. And while the media and establishment want to write us off as a long shot campaign, they can't write off our passion for what we're fighting for.

You are why this campaign has made it this far -- and frankly, we are only growing. If you stand with our Humanity First values and support my campaign, add your name here:

ENDORSE MY CAMPAIGN

I am not a politician. I never dreamed of running for president, but I saw the state of our country and I knew I had to do everything in my power to leave a better country for my children.

But I need you to step up with me and support my campaign. Together, we can be the change our country needs and build an economy that focuses on putting our people first.

I am thankful to the ever-growing Yang Gang -- a bold group of supporters that is willing to stand with fellow Americans and put people over politics as usual. There is nothing the Yang Gang can't accomplish -- and it is how we are going to win in 2020.

If you stand with me, add your name to show your support for this campaign. We can take this all the way to the White House.

Thank you for your support. Let's keep building this wave.
